A musical staff with ten lines, labeled C, B, A, G, F, E, D, C, B, A, G from top to bottom. The staff is divided into two sections by vertical grey lines labeled '1' and '2'. Red circles represent notes, connected by red lines. Some circles are solid red, others are hollow. Below the staff, there are three boxes with red dots above them, and a red 'J' symbol below the second box. To the right of the staff, there are letters: T, H, H, M, M, L, L, B, B.

A piano accompaniment diagram showing a sequence of chords and dynamics. It starts with a '0' (chordless) section, followed by a '1f' (first finger) section, then a '1' section with a red dot above the box, then another '1' section with a red dot above the box. A double bar line separates this from the second part, which starts with a '0' section, followed by a '1f' section, then a '1' section with a red dot above the box, and finally a '2f' (second finger) section with a red dot above the box.
